Common reasons why construction workers fail to receive the benefits under Education assistance

Exclusion owing to eligibility conditions

1. To avail themselves of the benefits, laborers must register as construction workers, but this requirement applies mainly to trades like masonry, plumbing, and electrical work, rather than to roles such as gardening and parking area maintenance, which are not categorized as part of the construction workforce.
2. Worker need to be permanent resident of Bangalore City.

Exclusion owing to documents related

A registered construction worker who is a permanent resident of Bengaluru City (Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike Limits) or the place from where he travels to Bengaluru is eligible to avail the benefit of BMTC Bus pass. Local address not required as long as registered in Bangalore.

Exclusion owing to scheme related

1. The scheme has exclusively extended benefits to laborers with permanent residency, leaving out all other workers without such residency status.
